

As a citizen of the state of Indiana, I would like to express my opinion regarding the possible weakening of the state's No Call List restrictions by allowing banks and credit card companies to contact me by phone. Quite frankly, if I already do business with the company then I know how to contact them if I would like to do further business. I DO NOT want them calling my home and bothering me in the little time that I have to spend with my family. My time at home is precious and I enjoy the privacy and the peace that has been afforded me by having my number on the No Call list. The calls have been reduced by 150% since the inception of the list.
